

Podcast Scripting

NOTES:

While a traditional podcast may not have all of these elements, and they may not be in order, you should be able to identify most of the elements that go into a news story.

Headline:

Topic:

Take your topic/idea and convert it into a “script” that would be recorded. Note, the writing will need to be done in a more conversational tone than what you might be used to.

Once you are done, read it aloud and track how long each element would take.

If you fill up all the boxes, you can add pages.
